Good Afternoon and Welcome to Kiwanis

Listen Up

As we anticipate Easter, we might want to remember Jesus's last words to His followers after His resurrection: "I am with you always, even unto the end of the world." That's a mighty promise well worth considering. How is He still with us?

He's with us when we face problems.

When we're angry, for example, He tells us to forgive the offenders, just as He forgave those who crucified Him, saying, "Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do." When we're hurt, He says to "pray for those who spitefully use you." And when we're lonely, He whispers, "I have called you friends. ... I chose you."

He's also with us when we face challenges.

Paul wrote to the Corinthians that he could "boast of my weaknesses so that the power of Christ may rest upon me." And knowing the mighty power of Christ, Paul told the Philippians that "I can do all things through Him who strengthens me."

The Risen Lord is with us every day, not just on Easter morning.

TODAY'S SONG

SMILE

Smile and the world
smiles with you sing a song.
Don't be weary,
just be cheery all day long.
Whenever your trials,
your troubles and your cares
seem to be more
than you can really bear.
Smile and the world
smiles with you sing a song.

Human and Spiritual Values

This week,

May you remember that the resurrection was not only the most powerful event in history, but also an inexhaustible, unending, infinite source of power for changing yourself.

May you open your mind to God's presence, so that He can transform you into a new person.

May you open your hearts to God's grace, so that He can give you what you need.

May you open your life to God's love, so that you are never alone.

May the resurrection change the way you think,

which will change the way you act,

which will change the world.

Based on Pastor Luke Conway's sermon notes
Lakewood United Methodist Church

If you see this Kiwanian, wish her a happy birthday."

Where do you live? (part 2)

You live in the Midwest when...

1. You've never met any celebrities, but the mayor knows your name.
2. Your idea of a traffic jam is ten cars waiting to pass a tractor.
3. You have had to switch from "heat" to "A/C" on the same day.
4. You end sentences with a preposition: "Where's my coat at?"
5. When asked how your trip was to any exotic place, you say, "It was different!"

You live in Florida when...

1. You eat dinner at 4:15 in the afternoon.
2. All purchases include a coupon of some kind - even houses and cars.
3. Everyone can recommend an excellent dermatologist.
4. Road construction never ends anywhere in the state.
