Good Afternoon and Welcome to Kiwanis

Listen Up

When Tennyson wrote a piece about the Trojan War hero Ulysses, he had the hero claim, "I am a part of all I have met."

When I first read that line in high school, I thought Ulysses was saying that he'd learned something from everything he'd met and was changed by all his interactions.

Later, though, I realized he was saying the opposite: he, Ulysses, had had an impact on every person and every place he had ever visited, always leaving evidence of his presence with others.

We Kiwanians are just such heroes. When we give and work to "improve the world one child and one community at a time," we're making ourselves present not only here in Independence County but all across the state and around the globe.

Tennyson got it right: we're heroes when we leave the world better than we found it, that world including mothers freed from tetanus in Philippines, kids free from Angelman Syndrome here at home, or kids nurtured through swimming, football, and college scholarships.

Kiwanians are modern heroes.

TODAY'S SONG

Hey, Look Us Over

Hey, look us over,
 Lend us an ear,
 We of Kiwanis hail from far and near.
 We're here with a purpose,
 Members with a goal,
 Whenever we're given a job to do
 We sure pour on the coal!
 And while we sing here together,
 Good members all,
 We of Kiwanis,
 Answering the call.
 We remember our motto
 "we're Builders all,"
 So kindly give us room!
 Hail Kiwanis! Here we come!

Kiwanis clubs enrich their communities with six million hours of service each year. Think about what could happen if we shared our stories—and inspired others.

There is no end to the great things we can accomplish if we don't worry about who gets the credit.
