Good Afternoon and Welcome to Kiwanis

Notes for the Club

It's Friday! and this is Father's Day weekend.

As I reflect on what this day is all about, I'm thinking of my father and how when I was young, I thought he was so strict, and I was rebellious. He was a man who didn't spare the rod or spoil the child. He was a Godly man and believed it was his primary job to raise me and teach me to be a contributing member of society. He made me learn to be respectful of others and work at a very early age. I don't think I was very strict when I raised my kids and yet in spite of my mistakes, they have all managed to be good working adults. I know we all have stories and feelings about that. So as you too remember what this day is about, I'm thankful that my father was the man he was and I look at him much differently today. I know that I was never as great as he is, but I keep trying to walk in his steps to this day.....

Happy Father's Day to all!

Joke of the day...True Doctor Stories

At the beginning of my shift I placed a stethoscope on an elderly and slightly deaf female patient's anterior chest wall.

"Big breaths," I instructed. "Yes, they used to be," remorsefully replied the patient.
