Good Afternoon and Welcome to Kiwanis

Frankly Speaking...

Welcome to Kiwanis!

The year is flying by and before long we will be planning our Annual Chubby Menard Breakfast Day in October followed by our Christmas Parade in December.

We have been using ZOOM Video-conferencing for our Board Meetings. We have learned how to stay connected while sheltering in place and plans are to carry this technology forward into our new way of doing things.

This week is our fourth in person weekly meeting and plans are to add ZOOM connectivity so Kiwanians not comfortable attending our weekly meetings in person may participate remotely. I want to encourage everyone to do what feels safe and comfortable to them personally.

We have a great slate of Speakers scheduled for our weekly meetings and as long as we are the smart Kiwanians that we are, we will be able to get together and achieve our goals.

Have a Great Weekend!

"In respect of our Guests and Speaker, please be certain that your cell phone is turned off."

Arkansas Children's Hospital Fund-raiser

All of July

July is the club's ACH month, when we raise cash to support this vital organization and all its service to the children of our wonderful state.

If you have not donated yet, please contact me or an officer or board member.

Sign, sign, everywhere a sign

We encourage you to enter the building wearing a mask and to practice safe distancing guidelines. The building is capable of handling our usual number on Fridays plus a quarter again as much.

Masks are available should you forget yours.

TODAY'S SONG

Hey, Look Us Over

Hey, look us over,
Lend us an ear,
We of Kiwanis hail from far and near.
We're here with a purpose,
Members with a goal,
Whenever we're given a job to do
We sure pour on the coal!
And while we sing here together,
Good members all,
We of Kiwanis,
Answering the call.
We remember our motto
"we're Builders all,"
So kindly give us room!
Hail Kiwanis! Here we come!

Kiwanis Objects

The six permanent Objects of Kiwanis International were approved by Kiwanis club delegates at the 1924 International Convention in Denver, Colorado. Through the decades, they have remained unchanged.

To give primacy to the human and spiritual rather than to the material values of life.

To encourage the daily living of the Golden Rule in all human relationships.

To promote the adoption and the application of higher social, business, and professional standards.

To develop, by precept and example, a more intelligent, aggressive, and serviceable citizenship.

To provide, through Kiwanis clubs, a practical means to form enduring friendships, to render altruistic service, and to build better communities.

To cooperate in creating and maintaining that sound public opinion and high idealism which make possible the increase of righteousness, justice, patriotism, and goodwill.

"If you see this Kiwanian, wish her a happy birthday."

What is a Kiwanian?

Why are you a Kiwanian?

How are you a Kiwanian?

Ask each other these questions and think about your answers.

I enjoy being a Kiwanian the most when I take notice of kindness and generosity overcome obstacles. I see this in individual service. Terrell Tebbetts has been painting. . . a lot. . . for Habitat. Thank you, Terrell for your service! I see this in our fundraising efforts: Even when they have no money to give, potential donors often give a smile of appreciation when I tell them what we are doing. That smile, that appreciation, is of great value.

When I look at Kiwanis, I see people choosing to be grateful enough to care. They have moved beyond entitlement, beyond habit, beyond demanding a response- to reaching out. That journey may not be something you are consciously aware of. Consider a strong contrast to Gratitude: Entitlement. Don't consider it very long, though. It's depressing and eats up time. Just ask yourself which you would rather notice in others, and express appreciation when you see it. Thanks to every one of you for being Kiwanians, and for showing gratitude through service.
