Good Afternoon and Welcome to Kiwanis

Tom's Talk

It's Friday, welcome to Kiwanis!

Our meeting is coming to you today from a different venue, Fox Creek BBQ. Today and August 12th we will meet at Fox Creek due to Tavolo's closing for vacations.

Tomorrow is the Water Carnival Parade in beautiful downtown Main Street Batesville! Although this is not an official Kiwanis project, we have been asked for volunteers to help stage the parade. If anyone is willing to volunteer, please do so.

After the Parade is "Stuff the Bus," although not one of our projects, still a worthy cause, BHS students will be on hand at Walmart with a big yellow school bus to accept donated food items for hungry children. My granddaughter Sydney will be there volunteering from 11-12 with the Prancers.

I've seen a glimpse of the programs for August and September, they are fantastic! Frank and Jack have done a tremendous job recruiting timely interesting speakers. Bring guests and share the gift of Kiwanis!

TODAY'S SONG

KEEP IT BOOMING!

Day by day, ev'ry way,
We get better as we play,
As Kiwanis goes building along;
In and out, hear us shout,
As we help the kiddies out,
As Kiwanis goes building along.
Then it's Hi Hi! Hee!
With a heart chock-full of glee;
Sound out your laughter loud and strong.
Where'er you go, let the people know,
That Kiwanis goes booming along.
(Shout) KEEP IT BOOMING!
And Kiwanis Goes Booming along.

*If you see these Kiwanians, wish them
a happy birthday."*

Martha and Ron Lewallen were joined by eight other Kiwanians and four Rotarians to feed hotdogs to hungry Scouts finishing the White River Canoe and Kayak Race that originated in Bull Shoals and ends at our Riverside Park. The Scouts pretty much wiped out the 'dogs. Many thanks. The members and their hours worked are as follows:

Ron Lewallen	5 hours	Forrest Priest	2 hours
Martha Lewallen	5 hours	Bill Cline	2 hours
Steven Lewis	3 hours	Ted Hall	2 hours
Frank Hilbert	2 hours	Brenda Doty	2 hours

human and spiritual values

A poem by Danusha Laméris on the value of small kindnesses:

"I've been thinking about the way, when you walk down a crowded aisle, people pull in their legs to let you by. Or how strangers still say "bless you" when someone sneezes, a leftover from the Bubonic plague. "Don't die," we are saying.
And sometimes, when you spill lemons from your grocery bag, someone else will help you pick them up. Mostly, we don't want to harm each other.
We want to be handed our cup of coffee hot, and to say thank you to the person handing it. To smile at them and for them to smile back. For the waitress to call us honey when she sets down the bowl of clam chowder, and for the driver in the red pick-up truck to let us pass.
We have so little of each other, now. So far from tribe and fire. Only these brief moments of exchange.
What if they are the true dwelling of the holy, these fleeting temples we make together when we say, "Here, have my seat," "Go ahead — you first," "I like your hat."
